NAKASONGOLA PENSIONERS' TRIUMPH: HOW LC₅ KIGULA SAM DELIVERED DIGNITY AND BACKLOG PAYMENTS

Under the leadership of LC₅ Chairperson Kigula Sam, Nakasongola's pensioners have transitioned from frustration to empowerment. No longer left to loiter at district offices, they now have a unified voice and a physical hub marking a dramatic shift in how retirees are treated

KEY ACHIEVEMENTS:

1. Organized Representation: Established the Nakasongola District Pensioners Association, complete with a furnished office at Nakasongola Town Council.
2. Strategic Leadership: Implemented a dedicated committee to streamline communication and service delivery.
3. Backlog Cleared: Successfully lobbied for 1.33 billion shillings in FY 2020/2021 to settle all pending pensions and gratuities.
4. Payroll Access: Ensured the majority are now on the pension payroll, with proactive outreach to resolve incomplete filings.

EMPOWERING EX-COMBATANTS THROUGH SACCO MOBILIZATION IN NAKASONGOLA

Ex-combatants from the UPDF, Police, and other pensioned officers in Nakasongola formed the Nakasongola Ex-combatants SACCO, now fully registered with about 45 active members.

Through this SACCO, led in part by Kigula Sam, members have mobilized efforts to seek re-employment opportunities for retired UPDF soldiers.
